

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES ON THE WEB

Visit the John Brown state historic site in Kansas at <http://www.kshs.org/places/johnbrown/index.htm>.

Travel back in time to Harper's Ferry, where abolitionist John Brown led a raid on the town's arsenal, at <http://www.nps.gov/hafe>.

Page through history by exploring the archives of The Atlantic Monthly online at <http://www.theatlantic.com>.

Learn more about the life of writer and suffragette Julia Ward Howe at www.juliawardhowe.org.

For a wealth of materials on the sites and events of the Civil War, visit the National Park Service's Civil War website at <http://cwar.nps.gov/civilwar>.

Read about the Civil War campaign which pitted Union General William Rosecrans against Confederate General Braxton Bragg at the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park website, <http://www.nps.gov/chch>.

A monument honoring General Oliver Otis Howard can be found at the Gettysburg National Military Park. For more information, visit the park's website at <http://www.nps.gov/gett>.

General Oliver Otis Howard was instrumental in the founding of two universities: Howard University and Lincoln Memorial University. You can visit Howard University on the web at <http://www.howard.edu> and Lincoln Memorial University on the web at <http://www.lmunet.edu>.

Explore the history of Chief Joseph at <http://www.indians.org/welker/joseph.htm>. The website features a biography and several noteworthy quotations by the Native American leader.

Learn more about the Nez Perce battles by visiting <http://www.friendsnezpercebattlefields.org/The-nez-perce-battles.htm>.

Located in historic Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, the U.S. Christian Commission Museum tells the story of the delegates who brought bandages and Bibles to the battlefield during the Civil War. Discover their story at <http://www.usccgettysburg.org>.

Much of the Civil War reenactment footage was shot at the Battle of Mill Springs in Nancy, Kentucky. Discover the story behind this lesser known battle at <http://www.millsprings.net>.

Visit Storyteller of the Heartland Rick Sowash's website at www.sowash.com.

FOR FURTHER READING

Autobiography of Oliver Otis Howard. Adult. Published by Kessinger Publishing Company, 2007.

Chief Joseph by Jane Sutcliffe and Tim Parlin. Ages 8 – 10. Published by Lerner Publishing Group, 2004.

Civil War by John Stanchak. Ages 12 and up. Published by DK Publishing, 2000.

Civil War: An Illustrated History by Geoffrey Ward, Ken Burns, and Ric Burns. Adult. Published by Knopf Publishing Group, 1992.

The Civil War for Kids: A History with 21 Activities by Janis Herbert. Ages 9 – 12. Published by Chicago Review Press, 1999.

The Edge of Glory: A Biography of General William S. Rosecrans, U.S.A. by William Lamers with introduction by Larry Daniel. Adult. Published by Louisiana State University Press, 1999.

From the Flag to the Cross: Scenes and Incidents of Christianity in the Civil War by Amos S. Billingsley. Adult. Available through the U.S. Christian Commission Museum site at <http://www.usccgettysburg.org/store.asp>.

Heroes of Ohio by Rick Sowash. All ages. Available at www.sowash.com.

Heroes of Ohio Coloring Book by Rick Sowash. Available at www.sowash.com.

John Brown, Abolitionist: The Man Who Killed Slavery, Sparked the Civil War and Seeded Civil Rights by David Reynolds. Adult. Published by Knopf Publishing Group, 2006.

If You Lived at the Time of the Civil War by Kay Moore and Anni Matsick. Ages 7 – 10. Published by Scholastic, 1994.

In Pursuit of the Nez Perces: The Nez Perce War of 1877 by General Oliver Otis Howard, Duncan McDonald, and Chief Joseph. Adult. Published by Mountain Meadow Press, 1993.

Julia Ward Howe by Elizabeth Raum. Ages 7 – 9. Published by Heinemann, 2004.

Julia Ward Howe 1819 – 1910 Volume 1 by Laura Richards, Maud Howe Elliott, and Florence Howe Hall. Adult. Kessinger Publishing Company, 2007.

Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory: A Biography of Julia Ward Howe by Deborah Pickman Clifford. Adult. Published by Little, Brown, & Company, 1979.

Of Vision and Valor: General Oliver O. Howard – A Biography by Gerald Weland. Ages 12 and up. Published by Daring Books, 1992.

Stars in Their Courses: The Gettysburg Campaign June – July 1863 by Shelby Foote. Adult. Published by Random House, 1994.

The Story of the Battle Hymn of the Republic by Florence H. Hall. High school to adult. Published by Kessinger Publishing Company, 2004.

While God Is Marching On: The Religious World of Civil War Soldiers by Steven Woodworth. Adult. Published by University Press of Kansas, 2001.