"I Was Wrong."

A look at two hearts changed by abortion

It all started with Norma McCorvey in one of the most famous court cases of all time—Roe v. Wade. Norma went seeking an abortion and ended up legalizing it. As a result, she suffered a slow, emotional decline accompanied by suicidal attempts. Ironically, she never had the abortion but instead chose adoption.

In 1977, 15-year-old Joyce Zounis also sought an abortion for her unwanted problem. Unsettling relief followed as six other children were aborted over the next eleven years. Thirty years later, Joyce not only grieves her seven baby boys, but their children and possible future generations.

Now, touched by God's tender love, both women share their gripping stories to bring a powerful redemptive message of hope and forgiveness through Christ and a deeper understanding of how they are convinced abortion strikes at the heart and soul of America. 30 minutes. DOC

Reflections on Psalm 23 for People with Cancer

Ken Curtis explores coping with advanced cancer from personal experience based on the inspiration of the 23rd Psalm.

Psalm 23 is one of the best-known and loved passages in the Bible. Its words of comfort and encouragement have been a support to many in difficult times. The clear and powerful sense of God's protective love comes forth so beautifully in this psalm. It is for this reason that so many people relate to it immediately when facing major personal challenges. At times of great fear and uncertainty, and cancer is one of the greatest, the simple yet powerful words of Psalm 23 can sustain us like few others can.

Ken Curtis, founder and president of Vision Video and Christian History Institute, was diagnosed with advanced cancer and given little hope for survival. He pursued a combination of traditional and alternative medicine, undergirded by a strong spiritual dimension and prayer support team.

Psalm 23 was a vital part of his spiritual component, and for this video Curtis went to Israel, home of David, writer of the Psalm, to be with the shepherds, travel "through the valley of the shadow of death," and explore and enjoy the healing powers of the green pastures and still waters. The resulting 13 meditations of about eight minutes each provide a combination of candid personal experience of what it means to battle cancer and some of the spiritual resources available from this time-honored Psalm. A co-production of Vision Video with EO-TV Holland, UCB-TV England and Nazareth Village (see their music CD below). DOC

Christianity and Islam

Here is a subject where we dare not remain uninformed. Today, there are approximately seven million Muslims and more than 13,000 mosques in North America. Now that Muslims are our neighbors, how do we talk to them about Christ? Which beliefs do we share in common with Muslims and where do we differ from them? Is the Father of Jesus the God of Muhammad? Noted theologian Dr. Timothy George teams with award-winning producer-director T. N. Mohan to answer these and other basic questions in this visually rich four-part collection. The series avoids the angry condemnation of all Muslims on the one hand, and compromising Christian truth-claims on the other. Muslim views are stated fairly and objectively by Muslim scholars who appear in the series. The programs set forth basic and foundational differences between Christianity and Islam and the implications for how we understand God, Christ, and the meaning of salvation. ## The Passion of Christ

with Ron Rolheiser, OMI

Through Scripture and examples from life, Fr. Rolheiser gives new understanding and encouragement in how we can give our lives to the world and to also give our death to the world.

When we think of passion, we think of Christ's physical suffering and death, but in the Agony in the Garden, the Gospels do not emphasize Jesus' physical sufferings. The Gospel writers want us to understand Jesus the lover, who undergoes moral and emotional sufferings without resentment or bitterness. Fr. Rolheiser explains that God's strength comes when we are exhausted and open to being transformed. Taped before a live audience. Two 50-minute parts. DOC

The Cross of Christ

with Ron Rolheiser, OMI

The Cross has become the ultimate symbol of love in the world. It is central to Christianity in that we are to forgive our enemies. As such, it is the single most revolutionary moral event that has happened on this planet. And, like all deep things in life, the Cross is largely a mystery. The Cross reveals God's unconditional love and vulnerability and is an invitation to discipleship. The Cross calls us beyond ourselves, our own agenda, and our own life. You will be challenged and inspired by this meditation taped before a live audience. Two 50-minute parts. DOC
