

Discussion Guide: Part 2

THE BODY: CHRISTIAN BAPTISM

1. What common elements of baptism do Christians of various denominations share?
2. What are some of the different modes of baptism mentioned in the film? Which of these methods are used in your faith community and why?
3. Did it surprise you to learn how people were baptized in the early church?
4. If applicable, share your baptism experience with the group.
5. What do people in your faith community do to prepare for baptism? How does this differ from the preparation of Christians in the early church?
6. The episode mentions several different types of baptismal fonts and pools. How is baptism incorporated into the architectural style of your worship space?
7. At what age can members of your faith community participate in baptism? Why?
8. In the episode, Dr. Lester Ruth makes the statement that “the baptismal waters paint the biblical story on our bodies.” What do you think is meant by this statement? Do you agree or disagree?

THE BODY: CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

1. Do you agree with John Wesley’s statement that “there is no such thing as a solitary Christian?” Why or why not?
2. Describe some of your earliest memories of worship as celebrated within a faith community.
3. In the New Testament book of Acts, there are references to the practice of communal living among Christians. Why do you think this is not a common practice today?
4. How can one reconcile the need for community with the need for solitude in worship?
5. Think of a time when you have been encouraged by other Christians in your church or parish and share this experience with the group.
6. Have you ever been to a worship service in an unusual location such as that of the cowboy church featured in the episode? If so tell the group about your experience. If not, would you ever attend a worship service in a non-traditional setting?
7. Since small groups are an important part of the Christian community, take time to talk about how the group has impacted your spiritual growth and faith practice.
8. What is your vision for the future of Christian worship?

FINAL THOUGHTS ON EPISODE 2

1. What is at least one thing you have learned from this episode?
2. Is there any worship practice in the film that you would like to adopt in your public or private worship experience?
