To Be a Pilgrim: The Canterbury Way

An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through southeast England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St. Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past and captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today. This beautifully photographed film follows Fr. Marcus Holden and Fr. Nicholas Schofield as they journey on pilgrimage from London to Canterbury. Along the way they discover the story of St. Thomas and various fascinating traditions: the Rood of Boxley, the splendor of Rochester, the “second Carmel” at Aylesford, and many more. By retracing the inspiring journey of the medieval pilgrims, this film reveals the rich Christian heritage of England and provides a profound reflection for all Catholics on what it means ‘To Be a Pilgrim.’ 126 minutes.

Happiness, Suffering, and the Love of God

In this series Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D. explores happiness in the revealing light of human transcendence and immortality. Beginning with the commonly held principle that different forms of happiness correspond to different fundamental human desires, Fr. Spitzer guides viewers through four distinct but related sources of happiness (pleasure, achievement, contribution, transcendence), showing how they form a hierarchy and explaining why only the highest level (transcendent happiness) will ultimately fulfill us. Along the way he presents fascinating evidence for our spiritual nature from philosophy, psychology, and contemporary studies of near-death experiences and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is followed by an investigation into the mystery of suffering that begins with the parable of the Father of the Prodigal Son. Fr. Spitzer explains why an unconditionally loving God would allow suffering and also offers guidance on how to suffer well. Happiness, Suffering, and the Love of God provides answers to some of life’s most vexing questions and dispels many popular misconceptions as it charts a fascinating course towards authentic and lasting happiness. Five discs, 320 minutes total.

Guadalupe: The Miracle and the Message

A most significant event in the evangelization of the New World occurred in December, 1531. Over the course of four days, the Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Guadalupe, appeared to an indigenous convert named Juan Diego. As a result of this encounter, and the image miraculously imprinted on Juan Diego’s tilma (cloak), nine million Native Americans embraced the Catholic faith, and the Americas began their transformation into the Catholic hemisphere. Our Lady of Guadalupe’s message of love had replaced the institutionalized violence of the Aztec culture and built a bridge between two worlds. Guadalupe: The Miracle and the Message traces the history of this transformative event from the 16th century to the present. Featuring interviews with leading theologians, historians, and experts on the scientific inquiries into the miraculous image, this gripping film explores both the inexplicable mysteries behind the image and the continued relevance of the Guadalupe apparition to the modern world. Narrated by Jim Caviezel. 58 minutes (S).

Miracles

What are miracles? Do miracles happen and, if so, what is their purpose? What attitudes should we take towards reports of miracles? How might miracles impact on our prospects for future happiness? What are the perspectives of science, theology, and philosophy on miracles today? The exploration of miracles raises some of the most important spiritual, intellectual, and personal questions that we face. An understanding of miracles is important for faith formation in churches and in the home, for personal spiritual and intellectual growth, for devotions, as well as many courses in religious studies and the humanities in general today. This inspiring film explores these questions from a Christian perspective, informed by historical and modern discussions in science, philosophy, and theology, as well as cases of particular miracles, ancient and contemporary. It is filled with many beautiful images, graphics, and art. 35 minutes.

The Mysterious Prophecy of Isaiah 53
Exploring the ancient prophecy of Isaiah 53 is one of the most fascinating studies one can make. Some say it reveals the story of the Bible in just a few verses. At the heart of the mystery is identifying the one called “My Servant.”
Judaism most often identifies the suffering servant as the people of Israel who have suffered throughout history. Those who believe Jesus was the Messiah of Israel see Isaiah 53 as predicting Jesus’ death, burial, and resurrection, centuries before he lived. Can both interpretations find common ground?
Hosted from Israel, this four-part DVD presents biblical scholars who discuss the clues and interpretations. Participants include Dr. Michael Rydelnik, Dr. Walter Kaiser, Dr. Michael Brown, and Dr. Darrell Bock. 150 minutes.

The Passover

Three generations of a family are portrayed in The Passover. One generation teaches, making the next generation aware of its heritage. Filmed in Dallas, TX, in a home designed for historical preservation, this film has a timeless feeling that both Jew and Gentile will not only find helpful but most enjoyable. 30 minutes.

You will be captivated and inspired by this enduring film. 54 minutes.

Jesus: Son of God?
For centuries Christians have been declaring that Jesus is the Son of God. It’s a bold statement—and one that bears questioning. When did all this begin? How could men and women, who believed in one God, think that God had a Son? What does ‘Son of God’ actually mean? Did Jesus himself have anything to say on the matter? On location in Turkey and the UK, Luke Waldock sets out on a journey to discover where, when, and how this vital Christian belief originated. 33 minutes (EST).

The Apocalypse

From the Emmy Award-winning Bible Collection featuring the critically acclaimed movies Abraham, Joseph, Moses, and Paul the Apostle, comes a production starring Richard Harris as the Apostle John in The Apocalypse.

In the late first century, the Roman Emperor Domitian unleashes a virulent campaign against Christians. Held captive by the Romans on the Island of Patmos, the aged Apostle John receives strange visions, including messages directly from Jesus to the seven persecuted churches on the nearby mainland. Key aspects of the story are firmly rooted in the biblical text and historical research. To propel the story, a few fictional characters are imagined, including a young Christian woman named Irene, who becomes important to John’s mission. Driven by her wish to meet the last living witness of the Lord’s passion, Irene succeeds in gaining access to John’s prison. Entrusting the written record of his visions to her, he begs Irene to spread its message among the Christians.

These visions form the contents of the Book of Revelation, the mysterious prophecy of Jesus’ return and a spiritual message for Christians of all eras. 96 minutes (EST).

Celestine

This is the riveting and mysterious story of Pope St. Celestine V, the pope who retired from the papacy after a very short reign. At the close of the tumultuous Middle Ages, this future monk and pope seemed destined from birth to save the world. Born Peter Morrone, he became a hermit and the founder of a religious order. The hidden designs of divine providence would, practically overnight, transform this humble servant of God into the most powerful man in the Catholic Church. Half a year later, he would be the only pope in history until then to abdicate the chair of St. Peter. This docu-drama investigates the secrecy of this dramatic time in history and reveals a story that involves deadly dealings, apocalyptic maneuverings, and papal intrigue. Shot on location in Italy, it makes use of classic medieval art to illustrate the story of Celestine. Historians, professors, and monks provide insightful commentary about the life and times of this controversial and enigmatic saint. 60 minutes.

The preservation of human life becomes a life-and-death mission for a small minority of ordinary Dutch citizens. This international award-winning documentary captures the compelling story and eyewitness account of six survivors in war-torn Netherlands during World War II. Hidden Heroes
The rescue of Jews in Nazi-occupied Holland is a story of unimaginable courage and faith. As told by those who lived through the Nazi terror, this evocative documentary recounts what it was like for Dutch Jews to face systematic isolation, persecution, and elimination. Our subjects were mere children at the time — children who witnessed their family and friends being arrested and dragged away and, for most, never to be seen again, children for whom unbearable pain and loss was cruelly compressed into a single experience of terror. Hitler’s plan to eliminate an entire race of people may have succeeded if not for those who saw the lie in his quest for perfection, those willing to stand against the Nazi evil—the Dutch resistance. These were Holland’s Hidden Heroes. 50 minutes.

Guadalupe: A Living Image

December, 1531, Mexico. The Virgin Mary appears to Juan Diego, a humble Indian peasant. At first, no one believes him. On the Virgin’s request, he wraps some Castilian roses in his cloak. The roses had mysteriously bloomed on the barren rock at his feet. Juan Diego is given an audience with his Bishop to tell his amazing story. When he meets the Bishop, he opens his cloak to a miraculous scene — the image of the Virgin is impressed upon it. The image is extraordinarily real. Centuries later, the results of scientific analysis are amazing. In the Virgin’s eyes the thirteen figures who witnessed the miracle are visible. The stars on her cloak are positioned exactly as they were in the skies on the day of the miracle. 52 minutes.

Engaging Documentaries

Stalingrad Madonna
In 1942, Russian troops fight to hold off the advancing German Army at Stalingrad. In his frozen foxhole, German staff physician and Protestant pastor, Kurt Reuber, creates a simple charcoal drawing of the Virgin Mary and the Christ child. At the bottom of the drawing he writes an inscription, “Licht, Leben, Liebe” (“Light, Life, Love”). After the German loss, Reuber became a prisoner of war and died in a Russian prison camp in 1944. However, his drawing, which has become known as the Stalingrad Madonna, was flown out on the last German transport plane to leave the Russian front. After the war, copies of the drawing were hung in Volgograd (formerly Stalingrad), Berlin, and Coventry, England. It has become a symbol of peace and forgiveness between nations. This documentary tells the story of the Stalingrad Madonna and how it continues to serve as a motivation for reconciliation between nations. 47 minutes. (E6).
